

New river yacht rental area Franche Comté

From the Rhone to the Rhine you can admire the beauty of the surrounding tourist area. Passing through a lock carved in the rock at Rochefort-sur-Neon. Or making a stop at Oselle with its famous cave and its lake while sailing in the tunnel of Thoraise. And finally, why not stop at the double-lock of Rancenay?

5 500km of rivers, over 100 ponds, 80 lakes, torrents, waterfalls and water sources. Here is what you will discover by sailing on the waters of Franche-Comté. Whether you make a stopover in Besançon, Dole, or Montbéliard you will notice how cities are full of history, customs and legends.

- Besançon: Besançon has a prestigious architectural heritage. A Citadelle and fortifications Vauban listed on the World Heritage List, 200 classified monuments, a hundred private mansions, the second safeguarded area of France. What give you the desire to make a stopover!

- Baume les Dames: Come and relax for a rest or a break! In the heart of the valleys of Doubs and Cusancin, tranquility will seize and soothe travelers in search of rest, in the heart of a Cité Patrimoine, its villages with the Comtoise look and generous nature to wish!

- Dole: Located at the gateway to the Jura, Dole is the birthplace of Louis Pasteur, the city was the capital of the county of Burgundy before being integrated into the kingdom of France in 1678. Thus you can discover the many inspired buildings Renaissance and a multitude of polychrome stones. A walk in this town will allow you to discover the bell tower of the Notre-Dame collegiate church more than 500 years old proudly dominating the historic center.

- Montbéliard: For nearly four centuries Montbéliard was under the aegis of the Württemberg family. Its illustrious monuments, its narrow streets, its squares, its colored facades are all contrasted architectural elements that recall the singular history of Montbéliard ...

River cruise from Montreux-Château

At the gates of Alsace, located on the territory of Belfort: region Burgundy-Franche Comté, the many attractions of this region will delight the most demanding! Our German and Swiss friends can reach us quickly because we are half an hour from the border.

On board your boat, you will leave on excursion on the link of the Rhone to the Rhine (more than 200 kms) or you will alternate navigation on the Allan, the Doubs and the canal. On foot or by bike thanks to the Eurovélo 6 (bike trail from the Atlantic through Europe to the Black Sea): You will not miss some visits to towns or villages with their famous markets.

At the edge of the water, you will appreciate the many breathtaking panoramas: the white limestone cliffs overlooking the Doubs, the bell towers and Francs Comtoise houses, Moulins, Citadels as well as diverse fauna and flora. You can make a stop to refresh yourselves in the Doubs, or to let you tempt by a fishing party (Trout, Carp, Pike ...)

All this will certainly have opened your appetite! You can taste the regional dishes in many restaurants or local shops ... Assiettes Francs Comtoises, fried Carpe, a plate of Cheeses Franc Comtois or Jurassiens ... all accompanied by a glass of Jura wine! Time will pass very quickly, but in the evening if you have more energy, you will be able to attend the many shows of sounds and lights proposed in the big cities.
